

Saluting Buffalo Soldiers is the theme of the 2022 Tarrant County Veterans Day Parade. This year's celebration steps off on Friday, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m. Participants will form up in the Fort Worth Panther Island Pavilion parking lot, march down North Forest Park Blvd. along the Clear Fork of the Trinity River and return.

“Everyone can join in our salute to Buffalo Soldiers and all military veterans who have, are and will continue to make great contributions,” notes Parade Chairman Ken Cox. “On this website you can learn how to support, volunteer, and take part.

“Will you consider joining this year's celebration?” Cox asks. “If you're not available, please help us spread the word... and we hope y'all can join our Cowtown salute on Veterans Day.”

VA Grants Parade Special Status

The VA has designated Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas as a regional site for the observance of Veterans Day 2021, according to Denis McDonough, Secretary of Veterans Affairs and Chairman of the Veterans Day National Committee (VDNC).
